District Related Issues

The recent floods have caused mold damage in the Caretakers residence. The Directors were very concerned, Director Weel offered his personal 23 ft trailer to the Caretaker as a temporary residence until his home is restored or replaced.

Director Weel, Director Bates and Kip Craig are working together with the Insurance company Capri.

Status of the Holtz Ranch lawsuit has not been ruled on yet.

Director Shepston has contacted Marnel, owners of Holtz Ranch, to discuss diverting the flood channel that flowed from their property and over to the Caretakers Residence flooding it and eventually causing the mold problems that are there now.

Steve Reighart and Director Shepston will construct a 10' X 10' shed for the Silverado Community Center.

DIRECTORS COMMENTS

Director Smisik asked Steve Reighart to fix a broken door on BldgA, and will be working with Director Weel on the next Recreation brochure.

Director Bates asked Darlene Bloom from Clerk of the Board to attend the next Board meeting to explain the Brown Act to the Directors. The meeting should begin early at 6:00pm.

Director Weel is working on wireless and cable modem for emergency communications.

Communication during the recent floods failed. Director Weel is also working on the next Recreation brochure for Spring.
