PUBLIC AND BOARD INPUT ON NON-AGENDIZED ITEMS

Dick Ertman said the new canyon market owners have been asked by the county to remove a historical window, that was painted by, artist Jack Wendorf, because of code laws. Mr. Ertman would like to save the window and possibly hang it in one of the Silverado community center bldgs. The Directors like the idea, Mr. Ertman has offered to pay for any removal and framing fees and will work on a plan to report at the next meeting. Director Peterson will contact a glass company for ideas and pricing.

Mary Schreiber got information for the Directors about possible alcohol use at the community center. After researching the old deeds Ms. Schreiber found out that the reason for the non-alcohol rule was because the Silverado Com. Ctr. was at one time a school. It may be possible to apply for permits to allow the use of alcohol but not to sell it.

Linda May said she would be sending out a questionnaire to SMRPD candidates, and then send them out to the community, but hadn't received much of a response yet.

Director Bates reminded everyone that political talk wouldn't be allowed at the meeting.
